There exist several methods to design forms u fields may be surrounded by bounding boxes. by ligh methods specify where to write and. therefore. mini with other parts of the form. These guides can be l is located below the form or they can be printed dire a separate sheet is much better from the point of vi but requires giving more instructions and. more imp this type of acquisition is used. Guiding rulers pr used for this reason. Light rectangles can be remove whenever the handwritten text touches the rulers. N be taken into account: The best way to print these